President's Introduction

The Society's 'New Priorities' programme was explained in the Report for 2020-21 and what follows is a short commentary on progress made towards meeting those priorities during 2025-6. The programme continues, of course, thanks to Nigel Burn's generous 2020 bequest, and it represents our ongoing memorial to Nigel's own contribution to local history.

Members will recall that our Council's 'New Priorities' programme is organised under five headings:

1) Although, last year, we thought that issues with our website had been resolved, progress of our consultant's work on our new platform – which will offer Society members and collaborators a single hub for accessing searchable digitised versions of previous LRS volumes, amongst many other features – has been unacceptably slow. Even though our website now offers information on, and access to, various Society activities, it is still not in the form we would wish. We owe a vote of thanks to our persistent Treasurer, Ken Hollamby, for maintaining pressure on the consultants involved and, even with an unfinished website, we continue to see a modest increase in membership numbers. The website is envisaged as the Society's functional core and we are assured that it will improve markedly in the coming year.
2) With the tardy development of the website, the glimmer of hope, in respect of the mediated digitisation of historical documents reported in last year's Annual Report, has remained no more than that. The Society has yet to complete any digitization project, and Dr Wheeler's hopes of completing the project to generate output in time for this year's annual report has not come to pass. We can only hope that work on the website speeds up during 2026-7 and that we have more positive news to report next year.
3) Our programme of 'outreach' projects' - directed by Dr Andrew Walker – goes from strength to strength. In conjunction with a succession of partners, Andrew has organised and directed a list of events, of which further detail is provided elsewhere in this report. The outreach budget, though modest, is increasingly deployed as an element within other projects promoted by the Society and its impact on local groups is considerable. We owe thanks to Andrew for his continuing efforts! The News Review also continues to blossom under the direction of Dr Hannah Boston. We have had two, extra-length editions this year and Dr Boston is proving so effective an editor that content has improved in quality as well as quantity. Consequently, we anticipate that more editions will be of extra-length in future. We continue to be grateful to Dr Boston for her commitment to the Society and for her contributions to FPC discussions.

4) During the reporting year, the Large Grants programme, under the direction of Dr Julian Haseldine and supported by our specialist Large Grants Committee (LGC), continued to develop. Following policy discussions at our Autumn 2025 Council meeting, it was decided that a review of the financial sustainability of the scheme's present format should be undertaken. The number of good quality proposals continued to rise through the reporting year and, thanks to our Nigel Burn bequest, the Society is clearly now seen as a major sponsor of historical studies within the ancient Diocese of Lincoln. Details of awards made during the year 2025-6 are given in Dr Haseldine's report below.

5) The Society's programme of Small Grants has also now established itself as one of the Society's most effective tools for supporting historical research within the ancient diocese. Excellent proposals continue to find their way to the scheme's manager, our Secretary Dr Paul Dryburgh. The Society can be proud that we are able to support so many of them. Once again, it is Nigel Burn's generosity that makes such support possible.
6) As has been said in previous reports, following consultation and discussion with stakeholders, our programme of conservation work on documents has been restricted to projects that assist work under the four previous headings. Where a document forming an integral part of a project progressed/funded under one of the above work-steams requires attention, we will seek to grant-aid that conservation work. No such documents have been proposed for grant-aid under this heading during the reporting year.

Structure, Governance and Management

The Society was founded in 1910 by Canon Charles Wilmer Foster, and subsequently endowed by Kathleen Major and Nigel Burn, with the object of publishing records and documents relating to church, parochial, manorial, family history and other aspects of the history of the county and ancient diocese of Lincoln.

Policies to enable the Society to achieve its charitable objectives are determined by its Council of trustees, which meets once or twice each year. An annual report and any changes to the governing document are put before members at the Annual General Meeting, usually held in October or early November. The day to day running of the Society is delegated by Council to the Finance and Publications Committee and to its Officers. An annual budget and five year plan is reviewed and approved by Council at its autumn meeting.

Membership is open to all, on payment of the annual subscription, currently set at £25 for all members, in return for which, members are supplied with the annual main series publications of the Society. Subscriptions are due on 1 August each year, but members may join at any time during the year and receive a full year's benefits. Most of the Society's publications deal with Lincolnshire, but some of the volumes include matter relating to the counties of Bedford, Buckingham, part of Hertford, Huntingdon, Leicester, Northampton, Oxford and Rutland, which were in former days included in the diocese of Lincoln. A new map of our area of interest is in the front of this report. Members are entitled to purchase back volumes and publications in the additional series at a discount. Members have free access by password to the Pastview website where most main series volumes are searchable online. Non-members can pay daily or monthly subscriptions.

The governing document is reproduced here.

The Rules of the Society are:

1. The Society shall be called the LINCOLN RECORD SOCIETY (hereinafter referred to as the Society).

2. The object of the Society shall be the advancement of public education in the history of the ancient diocese of Lincoln and the county of Lincolnshire especially by the transcription, editing and publication of original historical documents. The word 'Diocese' in this clause shall include any counties which have at any time formed part of the Diocese of Lincoln.

3. Membership of the Society shall be constituted by the payment of the annual subscription, or, in the case of life members, of the composition

4. The annual subscription shall be determined from time to time by the trustees and shall be payable on the first day of August in every year. A composition of an amount twenty times that of the annual subscription shall constitute life membership from the date of composition.

5. The management of the affairs of the Society shall be vested in a Council consisting of the president, secretary, general editor, treasurer and a number of at least seven and not exceeding twenty other members of the Society to be elected at the annual general meeting. Vacancies occurring between annual general meetings may be filled by the Council. Three shall form a quorum.

6. Each member shall be entitled to one copy of every work published in the main series by the Society in respect of his year of membership. No person shall receive any such volume until his subscription for the year in respect of which the volume is published has been paid. Provided that any member may be supplied with any of the publications, including the additional series, on such terms as the Council may from time to time determine.

7. Persons who are not members of the Society may be supplied with the publications of the Society on such terms as the Council may determine.

8. The funds of the Society, including the vouchers or securities for any investments, shall be kept at a Bank to be selected by the Council in the name of the Society. Such investments shall only be dealt with by an authority signed by the Secretary and such other person or persons as the Council may from time to time appoint.

9. The accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the Society and of its assets and liabilities, up to the 31st July in each year, shall be scrutinised in accordance with relevant legislation for the time being by an appropriate person or body to be appointed by the Society.

10. An annual general meeting of the members shall be held in the Autumn, to receive a report upon the work of the Society and the General Editors report, to receive the Treasurers financial statement and to elect an appropriate scrutineer in accordance with Rule 9, to elect officers and a council for the ensuing year, and to transact the general business of the Society.

11. The Council may require the accuracy of any transcript, calendar or translation to be tested on their behalf before it is printed.

12. The editor of a volume shall be entitled to receive five copies of the work.

13. The Secretary shall keep a minute book wherein shall be entered a record of the transactions as well at meetings of the Council as at general meetings of the Society.

14. The rules shall only be amended at a General Meeting called for that purpose giving at least 21 days' notice of the proposed amendment. No amendment shall be made to the constitution that would cause the Society to cease to be a Charity at Law. Any alteration to the constitution must receive the assent of not less than two-thirds of those present and voting. Any amendment to Clause 2 or Clause 15 or this Clause shall require the prior approval of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales.

15. The Society may be dissolved by a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a General Meeting. In the event of dissolution, any property remaining after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities shall be given or transferred to such other charitable institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of this Society as the Charity Commissioners or other authority having charitable jurisdiction may determine.

Trustees: The Council members constitute trustees of the charity for the purposes of charity legislation, having due regard to the qualifications, reputation and relevant abilities of the candidates. Explanation of the legal duties and responsibilities of trustees is given by the Secretary to new trustees, and all trustees are advised of any changes to relevant legislation and recommended best practice. From time to time trustees receive training from external providers.

Risks: are identified, determined, evaluated and managed by regular review of operating conditions, and by the maintenance of a risk register, which is reviewed at least annually by the Finance and Publications Committee. The major risks to which the Society is exposed relate to market conditions surrounding its investment portfolio, data loss relating to its financial and administrative records, and the loss of the officers without adequate provision being made for their replacement and the transfer of knowledge. In the trustees' opinion, reasonable steps have been taken to reduce exposure to these risks.

Data Protection: In May 2018 the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into force. This regulates the processing of personal data by organisations. In order to ensure the Society's compliance the officers have drawn up a Data Protection and Information Security Policy. This sets out the personal data the Society collects and the mechanisms by which it seeks to process further, manage (including destruction) and store that data, in order to comply with this legislation and fulfil the contractual agreement between Society and member with regard to the benefits of the subscription. It also outlines procedures for review and revision in line with future legislation. Full details of the policy are available on our website.

Objectives and Activities

The Society's objectives are noted above.

Activities are established by the trustees to meet and accord with the Society's charitable objectives. In addition to the publication of historical documents relating to the diocese and ancient county of Lincolnshire, the Society also makes grants for research and other purposes which, in the opinion of the trustees, will further the Society's objectives. The Society also organises events for its members and the general public which help to achieve its objectives. It also actively communicates with its members via social media and email as well as print publications.

Public Benefit: The trustees having regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission in deciding what activities the Society should undertake, the Society makes its volumes freely available to the general public by appointment with Lincoln Cathedral Library where two sets of its publications are held. The Society's volumes are also stocked by many public libraries and archives, and are available for sale to non-members on payment of the cover price in force for the time being. The Society's website is available to all Internet users, and contain information about its work, publications, grant-making programme, linked organisations, and events open to the general public.

Volunteers: the Society's trustees are all volunteers, and it has not yet needed any other volunteers who are not trustees. It is estimated that the trustees contribute some 1000 – 1500 hours per annum of their time to the running of the Society. The equivalent financial benefit of these hours of professional time may be in the region of £100,000 per annum.

Achievements and Performance

Publications:

During the last year the Society published Volume 114 of the main series, Land and God: the City, County and Diocese of Lincoln over Nine Centuries: Essays in Honour of Nicholas Bennett edited by Paul Dryburgh and Philippa Hoskin. Volume 115 is the third part of Nicholas Bennett's Lincolnshire Parish Clergy series, covering the large deanery of Calcewaith, thirty-nine parishes including Alford and Mablethorpe. This volume is currently in press and will be distributed to members shortly.

Several other volumes are in active preparation in particular Michael Gilbert's completion of Marion Brassington's edition of The Minute Book of the Townhusbands of Spalding, 1591-1697 and Rod Ambler's and Martin Watkinson's edition of The Pelham Surveys 1585-87 and Related Probate Material. Discussions continue for the publication of the Lincoln Diocesan Training College student records volume.

For the Kathleen Major Series, Volume KM3 The Goxhill Leiger edited by Philippa Hoskin is in press. This will be available for members to purchase later in the year. Three proposed editions are making good progress: the Kirkstead Cartulary, edited by Katy Dutton; the Oath Takers Lists edited by Nigel Saul, Bishop Buckingham's Memoranda edited by Alison McHardy.

Other Activities: The Society continues to explore and deliver a range of activities beyond our core business which demonstrate a commitment to engaging with members and non-members alike both in person and online. The President's Introduction to this Report sets out the broad areas in which the Society is fulfilling our New Priorities following the Nigel Burn Bequest. Here, more detail is given on individual programmes and award schemes.

Communications

In the year under review, two further editions of our News Review have been published under the editorship of Dr Hannah Boston. The Autumn 2025 edition was introduced by Professor Louise Wilkinson and Dr Adrian Jobson, with a focus on the 2025 Thirteenth-Century Conference held at the University of Lincoln with the support of the LRS. There were reports from the Lincolnshire Brick website, the Historical Games Jam at Bishop Grosseteste University (now Lincoln Bishop University), the Lincoln Rare Book School, and the LRS' presence at the Leeds International Medieval Congress. Alison McHardy introduced the first of a new series, 'My Favourite Volume', celebrating past LRS volumes available to members online through Pastview, with a discussion of The Diaries of Edward Lee Hicks Bishop of Lincoln 1910-1919 (1993).

The Spring 2026 issue was introduced by Dr Martin Roberts, a recipient of an LRS large grant from the Nigel Burn Memorial Fund. The involvement of the LRS in the joint venture of funding a new Lincoln Cathedral librarian was announced by Ken Hollamby. A report was provided on the launch of Land and God: Essays in Honour of Nicholas Bennett, and Dr Bennett's tireless work on behalf of Lincolnshire history celebrated. Further reports were provided on the LRS AGM and the Counting Chimneys conference, and on ongoing work carried out under the auspices of the Nigel Burn Memorial Fund by Sarah White and Will Eves, Hannah Boston, and W. Jack Rhoden for their respective projects. The issue included reports on forthcoming publications, including William Stukeley's Stamford and Wills and Windows. Hannah Boston provided the second of the 'My Favourite Volume' series of articles, focused on F.M. Stenton's Transcripts of Charters relating to Gilbertine Houses (1920).

The Society's social media profile has now become temporarily moribund while a new website is built. Nevertheless, thanks to colleagues at Boydell & Brewer, we issue regular email communications to members regarding upcoming events and volume promotions.

Outreach

Several successful outreach-related activities have occurred over the past twelve months, including the following:

1. Thirteenth Century Conference, University of Lincoln, Public Lecture, Friday 5 September 2025

The Lincoln Record Society sponsored a free public lecture at the conference. This was the Björn K. U. Weiler Memorial Lecture. The well-received talk was given by Professor Daniel Power, Swansea University, entitled 'Eleanor of Ponthieu, Eleanor of Aumale? The Inheritance Claims of Eleanor of Castile'.

2. Lincoln Book Festival, Sunday 5 October 2025
A collaborative Book Festival session was organised with LRS, the Society for Lincolnshire History and Archaeology and The Survey of Lincoln.

The event took place on Sunday 5 October between 2pm and 4pm, at Lincoln Bishop University.

The session had a watery theme. For the LRS, Rob Wheeler spoke about the history of Boultham Lake, drawing upon the content of his edited LRS volume (96), Maps of the Witham Fens.

During the event, there was the opportunity to showcase the work of the Lincoln Record Society and draw attention to its publications. Thanks to Ken Hollamby for his work on the LRS stand, and to David Stocker for introducing the event. An audience of c. 35 people attended the event and feedback received on the day was very positive.

3. Webinar programme, Thursday 9 October 2025

The second of the LRS's webinar series for 2025 took place on Thursday 9 October 2025. This was entitled: 'Managing a medieval and early-modern diocese and its challenges: the case of Lincoln':

- Jessica Holt, PhD student, University of Lincoln 'Episcopal Authority: Visitation during the Episcopate of Bishop Thomas Bek (1342-1347)'
- Dr Martin Roberts, Postdoctoral Research Associate, University of Lincoln, 'Meeting the Challenges Head On: Confronting Obstacles to Effective Administration of Justice in An Early-Sixteenth-Century Diocese'

The papers delivered by Jessica and Martin were very well received by a Zoom audience of some 25 people.

4. Joint conference: 'Counting Chimneys: The Hearth Tax in Lincolnshire', Lincoln College, Saturday 25 October 2025.

This joint conference involved the LRS, the SLHA's Building Recording Group (RUBL) and the British Record Society. SLHA undertook the administration for this one-day conference event (including use of its Eventbrite account to advertise the event and manage bookings), and the LRS underwrote costs. The conference was widely advertised via both LRS and SLHA members and very pleasingly attracted over 70 delegates.

The event was the precursor to a Hearth Tax volume relating to Lincolnshire, which is due to be published by the LRS/British Record Society in 2027. Speakers included contributors to the volume. Chaired by Professor David Stocker, the event included contributions from within LRS and SLHA by Dr Nicholas Bennett, Naomi Field, Jenne Pape, and Dr Rob Wheeler. External speakers included: Dr Catherine Ferguson, Dr Adrian Green, Dr David Neave, and Dr Andrew Wareham. Thanks are particularly due to Ken Hollamby for all of his work organising the event on the LRS's behalf, and also to Kathy Holland of the SLHA.

5. Book launches

Volume 113 Louth Churchwardens' Accounts edited by Dr Brian Hodgkinson was launched at Louth Methodist Chapel on Friday November 28th 2025. Dr Hodgkinson reprised the lecture he had given at the AGM.

Volume 114 Land and God: The City, County and Diocese of Lincoln over Nine Centuries. Essays in Honour of Nicholas Bennett, edited by Paul Dryburgh and Philippa Hoskin) was launched on the afternoon of Friday 23 January in the Chapter House, Lincoln Cathedral. This was a great success: Carol Bennett deserved much thanks for her involvement in the event's organisation. Full details of the event can be found in Hannah Boston's report in News Review (issue 25, April 2026).

6. Spring webinar, Wednesday 20 May 2026

This event allowed two early career scholars to share some of their recent research findings with a wide audience. The two scholars were:

- Dr Emma Nelson, (Chetham's Library Manchester), 'Book Owners and Donors in Twelfth-Century Lincoln'
- Thomas Brown-Warr, (Lincoln Bishop University) '"All the counties round are in a flame": the 1688 Revolution, the Northern Uprising and the Lincolnshire perspective'

The papers were well received by an audience of approximately thirty, including a number of international delegates.

7. Lincoln Festival of History/Lincolnshire Libraries Local History Month event, Thursday 21 May 2026

A 'drop-in' event was held in the Lincoln Central Library's Community Room, in which the LRS had a stall, along with the Society for Lincolnshire History and Archaeology and The Survey of Lincoln. Although visitor numbers were modest, nevertheless this seemed to be a worthwhile event in which to have a presence.

During the year, a role descriptor was developed for a volunteer Publication Launch Co-ordinator, to work with the LRS editors and the Outreach Co-ordinator. It is hoped to have more news about this in the near future.

Plans are currently well advanced for a forthcoming conference entitled 'The Revolt of the Provinces: Local Dimensions of the English Civil War', National Civil War Centre, Newark which is to take place on Saturday 17 October 2026. Thanks to Dr Jon Fitzgibbons for his significant work in devising the programme for the day.

Awards

The LRS Prizes for Best Dissertation (across both MA Medieval Studies and MA History cohorts) for the academic year 2025-2026 at the University of Lincoln have been awarded to Jean Suszko - 'Burning Boundaries: Negotiating Gender, Sanctity, and Authority through Joan of Arc's Identity', and to Erin Lintott for 'Bodily, emotional, and theological perspectives: the role and significance of gender within late medieval English mysticism'. Each winner receives £200 and three years' free membership of the Society.

Small Grants

Every year the Society allocates a budget of £30,000 towards supporting a programme of small grant awards, usually up to but not exceeding £10,000. In the year under review the Society has supported the following projects, awarding a total of £15,676.81:

- George Langton Diaries (Spirit of Sutterby), £647.21
- Writing St Guthlac, Medieval to Modern (Dr Emma Nuding), £258
- Wills and Windows (Dr Joseph Spooner, Corpus Vitrearum project), £4,500
- Stamford Pubs and Breweries (Martin Smith), £1,000
- British Legal History conference (Dr Will Eves and Dr Sarah White, University of Nottingham), £200
- Dr Alison McHardy, £271.60
- Magna Carta Beyond London (Society of Antiquaries of London), £8,800

Joint Ventures

Victoria County History of Lincolnshire: Spalding

The joint venture with the Spalding Gentlemen's Society (SGS) to produce two new 'short' volumes of the Victoria County History (VCH) for Spalding has made significant progress during the year in progress. Guided by a Memorandum of Agreement and supported by an investment of £10,000 from the Society, the project has, under the direction of Dr Michael Gilbert, President of SGS and Director of the new Centre for Fenland Studies, and Sue Hughes, both of the Centre for English Local History at the University of Leicester, now hired an editor /coordinator, Dr Gabrielle Storey. Dr Storey leads on training volunteers in research methodologies and in writing for publication, and has hosted several workshops. The publication will include at least fifteen chapters on topics ranging from Spalding during the Civil War to sports, schools, railways and healthcare.

As per the Memorandum of Agreement, there have been five meetings of the Project Management Board under the chairmanship of Dr Gilbert in the year under review. The Board has approved the Project Design, approved proposals for funding, set the project timetable, received reports on progress and monitored against the Design. Regular reports to the trustees of the founding and funding bodies have also been submitted. The Board is working closely with the Steering Group and Project Editor to explore further avenues for funding for the project which is due to complete in 2028.

Lincoln Cathedral Librarian

In March the Society entered into a five-year joint venture with Lincoln Cathedral to provide 50% of the salary of the new librarian. The Society was represented on the interview panel who recommended that Dr Aya Van Renterghem be appointed. Dr Van Rentergham started in her new post on July 1st. The Memorandum of Agreement set up a Project Board which the Society is represented on.

Historic Towns Trust Historical Map of Boston

This project started as small grant of £5,000 in 2024-2025 which was not taken up. This grant was subsequently replaced by a Joint Venture Agreement in May 2026. The Society agreed to contribute £15,000 to the project to research and publish an Historical Map of Boston. The Society is represented on the Project Board which is responsible for the overall management of the project and on the Steering Group which deals with the technical aspects of the project.

Large Grants

In 2020 Council decided that a proportion of the Nigel Burn bequest should be dedicated to a significant investment in a research effort that would produce visible and notable benefits for our members within a relatively short period of time, while reserving the rest of the bequest for other initiatives and to ensure the long-term sustainability of the Society. In the event, the scheme proved far more successful than we had originally hoped, and, having reviewed the position regularly, Council took the decision, in 2026, to close the scheme to new applicants, in order to focus resources on other areas of the Society's activities.

During the financial year the following Nigel Burn large grants were approved.

Stixwould Abbey Cartulary / Introduction to Bardney Cartulary (Dr Katy Dutton, Professor Louise Wilkinson – Universities of Liverpool and Lincoln) £86,827.

Crowland Abbey Cartulary (Dr Hannah Boston, University of Cambridge) £127,125.

The Register of Thomas Bek, Bishop of Lincoln (Dr Jessica Holt, University of Lincoln) £140,920.

Lindsey Quarter Session 1625-1659 (Dr Taylor Aucoin, University of Edinburgh) £159,564

Writing to Power: Pauper and Advocate Letters in the Ancient Lincoln diocese 1750s to 1830s (Professor Stephen King Nottingham Trent University) £19,478.

The total of Large Grant payments during the year was £280,433. The details are in the accounts.

Legacies: There are no new legacies this year.

Financial Review: Investment income from our portfolio managed by RBC Brewin Dolphin was £40,551(2025 £58,486). The cost of managing our portfolio was £12,629 (2025 £12,331). As at July 31st the value of the portfolio was £1,818,573 (2025 £2,011,800).

Investment income of £7,313 (2025 £12,166) was received during the year from bank interest earned on monies held by the charity.

Subscription income was £6,639 compared with £6,254 in 2025.

Book sales including digital sales were £2,643 (2025 £1,843). The cost of Volume 114 including shipping costs was £11,514.

Total operating expenditure was £378,212 (2025 £184,713). This includes grants of £334,680 (2025 £123,024) and website costs of £3,477 (2025 £3,401)

Funds are also invested in the Charities Official Investment Fund which is managed by the CCLA. The Finance and Publications Committee undertake regular monitoring and review of investments. Investments held by RBC Brewin Dolphin are in a nominee account.

Reserves Policy: The Trustees maintain unrestricted general reserves to safeguard the Charity's financial stability and ensure it can continue to deliver its charitable objectives. The reserves are intended to:

- cover the average cost of producing one publication;
- support an appropriate level of grant-making activity;
- provide protection against unforeseen financial pressures, fluctuations in income, or unexpected expenditure.

Having considered the Charity's operational and strategic requirements, the Trustees have determined that a target level of unrestricted reserves of £700,000 is appropriate. This level is reviewed regularly as part of the Charity's financial planning process and is reflected in its five-year strategy.

At 31 July 2026, the Charity held reserves of £2,161,268, which is above the target level. This reflects a number of substantial grant commitments approved by the Trustees that had not yet been paid at the year end. As these commitments are fulfilled, reserves are expected to reduce towards the target level. The Trustees are satisfied that the current reserve position remains appropriate in light of these commitments and the Charity's future funding plans.

LINCOLN RECORD SOCIETY

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Lincoln Record Society

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Lincoln Record Society for the year ended 31 July 2026.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following accounting policies have been used consistently in dealing with items which are considered material to the charity's affairs.

a Basis of accounting

Lincoln Record Society is an unincorporated Charity. The address of the principal office is given in the Charity information page of these financial statements.

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)',Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland . The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, with the exception of investments which are included at market value.

b Legacies

Legacies are recognised when the sum to which the charity is entitled is known, the receipt is probable and entitlement has passed to the charity.

c Subscriptions

Subscriptions are recognised in the period to which they relate.

d Investment income

Interest on deposits is accounted for in the period when it was earned.

e Expenditure

Expenditure is included in the year to which it relates rather than the year in which it is paid. Expenditure includes irrecoverable VAT. Support costs are those costs incurred in running the charity's activities and the strategic overall management of the charity. Expenditure has been presented in line with the alternative method.

f Fixed assets and depreciation

Fixed assets are included at cost less depreciation. There is no formal capitalisation limit. Depreciation is calculated so as to write off the cost of an asset, less its estimated residual value, over the useful economic life of that asset as follows:

Website	over 3 years
Facebook Project	over 3 years
Digitisation Project	over 5 years

g Investments

Investments are initially recognised at their transaction value and are subsequently measured at fair value at the balance sheet date. Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value are recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities in the period in which they arise.

Investment income, including interest, dividends and distributions, is recognised when receivable.
Investments are reviewed for impairment where events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable.

h Stock of books

Book publication costs are written off as incurred. Stock is not valued in the accounts.

i Funds

Designated funds have been identified by the trustees and set aside for a specific purpose as described in the trustees report. There are no designated funds.
General funds are those funds which are available to the trustees to apply for the general purpose of the charity
